HENEY LEADS FICKERT BY SMALL MARGIN ON DEMOCRATIC TICKET

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—At 4 o'clock this afternoon the result of the vote in 145 precincts gives Heney a majority of 90 over Fickert on the Democratic ticket. The figures are: Republican, Fickert, 11,827; Heney, 4099; Democratic, Fickert, 2103; Heney, 2193; Union Labor, Fickert, 3091; Heney, 569.

The total number of votes cast in 145 precincts were 36,721. In four precincts yet to be heard from it is estimated that there are 1500 votes, as they are all in thickly settled districts.

COMPLETE RETURNS IN FROM NINE DISTRICTS

Union Labor Party Votes Against Special Prosecutor By Seven to One

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—At 3 o'clock this afternoon from completed districts coming into the Registrar's office it appears that about two-thirds of the Democratic candidates for supervisors, running on the Crocker ticket, have been elected. The regular Republican, known as the machine, has elected practically all of their nominees, with the exception of Robert W. Dignall, candidate for auditor, who is beaten by H. D. Mathewson. Benjamin L. McKinley, candidate for City Attorney, who seems to be beaten by the present incumbent, Peter V. Long, and John J. Deane, the nominee for sheriff, who is far behind Frederick Eggers, running on the Maury ticket. More complete returns keep coming up a larger majority for Crocker.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—At 3 o'clock this afternoon a bulletin from the official results from twelve districts give Charles M. Fickert, Republican, 9,815; Heney, 3,273; Democratic, 1,768; Union Labor, 2,619. These districts are 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 36, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15. A partial count of the thirty-fourth, which is almost complete, brings the result down to a plurality for the Democratic ticket of 60 for Fickert.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—The total of the district attorneyship of 126 precincts out of the 149, complete official returns were announced as: Fickert, Heney, Republican, 9,815, 3,273; Democratic, 1,768, 1,782; Union Labor, 2,619, 483. This shows a lead of 14 votes for Heney on the Democratic ticket, with strong Fickert precincts yet to hear from.

On the total, Heney is completely snowed under by Fickert.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—The total of the three parties at yesterday's primary is: Fickert—29,950; Heney—11,977. Fickert has won two nominations and probably the third. The Democratic vote on the district attorneyship is very close. A half-dozen votes may decide between Fickert and Heney on the ticket. The Republicans turned Heney down by 3 to 1. The Union Labor voters rejected the Special prosecutor by more than 3 to 1.

Only in the light Democratic vote did Heney approach Fickert, and the latter has the best chance to take that nomination on the incomplete returns.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—By a substantial and safe margin, William Crocker, the well known planning mill man, has been selected by the

MYSTERY SHROUDS KNIFE WIELDING

Family of Victim Moved From Home—Police Work on Strange Case

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—When Frank Ewing of 652 Willow avenue returned home after a three months' absence, arriving here early this morning on the steamer Acapulco, he found his house vacated and his wife gone, he knows not where.

He hammered at the door, and did all possible to secure entrance to his domicile, but without success, and so decided to return to his ship and spend the night.

Visited Resorts

Ewing dropped into several resorts on the way. He last remembers being at Eddy and Laguna street, but can recall no further incidents of his trip toward the waterfront.

At 5 o'clock this morning a policeman found him lying unconscious in front of the Old Heidelberg cafe at Ellis and Market streets, with a dangerous and perhaps fatal stab wound in the back. The affair is cloaked in a cloud of mystery, and after being treated at the Central emergency hospital and regaining consciousness sufficient to tell his story, officers were detailed to investigate.

Ewing was assistant steward on the steamer Acapulco, which arrived yesterday from Mexico. When discovered he possessed considerable money and jewelry and the police cannot understand the motive for an assault.

Ends Gay Night By Cutting His Throat

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 18.—Martin G. Murphy, aged 56, a Death Valley miner who has spent a part of his life in the wealth through the barren desert regions of the west, came to the city a day or two ago to put in a stock of supplies for a new prospecting trip. But instead of doing so, he started on a round of the city, taking numerous photographs, spending all his funds and winding up, finally by cutting his throat with his old pocket knife. He was found in the street, bleeding badly, by a patrolman. He was taken to the hospital and may recover.

A search developed the fact that the man had been seen struggling in the water off the wharf.

The Alameda police were notified of the suicide, but their attempt to identify him thus far have proved vain. The police theory is that the man was a resident of this city.

The suicide is described as about five feet, eleven inches tall, of medium build and smooth shaven. He wore a light gray suit, a light soft felt hat and had a diamond pin in his cravat.

MYSTERY CLOAKS SUICIDE IN BAY

Stranger Hurls Himself Under Two Trains and Then Drowns in Water

ALAMEDA, Aug. 18.—Shrouding his identity in mystery and keeping locked within his breast the causes which drove him to desperation, a stranger leaped into the bay from the north side of the Alameda mole last night and was drowned. Not ten minutes before, he had twice attempted to end his life by hurling himself in front of trains.

The stranger was well dressed and prosperous looking. He arrived on the Alameda mole at 7:30 o'clock, on the ferryboat Oakland from San Francisco, and attracted considerable attention among the yard hands by remaining at the terminal after the trains had pulled out.

Night Watchman James Taggart gave particular attention to the man, who, for several minutes stood around the tracks awaiting the arrival of the out-bound train. Suddenly, as the Emery street local dashed into the terminal the man hurled himself upon the tracks. He was rescued by Brakeman A. J. Steins immediately after being released, and threw himself in front of the "Horse Shoe" train. Robert Stage, a switchman, dragged him from the rails just as the engine sped by. The man's clothes were brushed and soiled by the passing locomotive.

Second Attempt

After his second attempt to commit suicide, the stranger was taken into the waiting room. After the arrival of the next Alameda train, G. H. Haugen, the yardmaster, looked for the stranger. He had disappeared.

A search developed the fact that the man had been seen struggling in the water off the wharf.

The Alameda police were notified of the suicide, but their attempt to identify him thus far have proved vain. The police theory is that the man was a resident of this city.

The suicide is described as about five feet, eleven inches tall, of medium build and smooth shaven. He wore a light gray suit, a light soft felt hat and had a diamond pin in his cravat.

STOLEN DIVORCE PAPERS RETURNED

Restore Documents Which Disappeared When Mrs. Schultheis was Freed

As mysteriously as they disappeared from the files of the Superior Court when the interlocutory decree was granted to the wife about a month ago, the papers in the divorce suit instituted by Sadie A. Schultheis against Dr. Charles F. Schultheis, the well known dentist, on the ground of extreme cruelty, were restored this morning and now hold their regular place in the archives of the county clerk's office.

The strictest secrecy surrounded the filing of the suit to prevent the nature and details of Mrs. Schultheis' complaint from being made public and later on when Attorney John S. De Laney rendered his report as court commissioner of the testimony, all of the papers vanished completely.

Dr. Schultheis was charged by his wife with having been in the habit of taking nightly "joy" rides in his automobile and refusing to tell her where he went, what company he kept or to let her accompany him. She also alleged that he struck her with his hand and menaced her with a chair when she insisted on his taking her for a ride.

The chair figured in a controversy when Mrs. Schultheis asked the doctor to take her and a friend, Mrs. Amelia Spink, down town. He was just taking his machine out for one of his alleged nightly rides when the request was made and refused.

LOOTS DEAD VETERAN'S ESTATE BY FORGERY

Clerk in Office of Public Administrator Suspected of Serious Crime

OLD SOLDIER BURIED IN POTTER'S FIELD

District Attorney to Take Matter Before Grand Jury at Tomorrow's Session

A. J. Flood, an attache of the office of Public Administrator Gray, is believed by those who have been investigating the case to have resorted to forgery to loot the small estate of the A. L. Pounstone, a veteran of the Civil War and a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Flood left Oakland about a week ago, accompanied by his wife on his vacation, ostensibly to visit the Seattle Exposition, but thus far Administrator Gray has been unable to get in touch with him by telegram, although he has sent several dispatches to the northern city in an attempt to locate him and have him turn home to face the strong, circumstantial case that has been built up against him in the office of the District Attorney.

While District Attorney Deane has as yet made no disclosure against Flood, it is understood that the evidence he is presenting to the Grand Jury at session tomorrow, which will be devoted to a thorough inquiry into the matter, will point directly to the guilt of Clerk Flood and he will probably be indicted.

Robbery Well Planned

The robbery of the Pounstone estate developed into one of the most sensational bits of criminality in the annals of the local press. While the amount involved is not large, the method employed was without in their conception and execution. The crime was conceived in a clever mind and shrewdly executed and it was only by the merest chance that it was detected by the district attorney.

Buried by County

Pounstone died at the County Jail in March, 1907, apparently of natural causes, and was buried at the expense of people in the Potter's Field on the Alameda. Some time afterwards, however, it was discovered by the Public Administrator that the dead veteran left on deposit one of the Oakland banks $300. He had been a victim of an administration of the law, and the clerk of the court, J. J. O'Brien, had been made to sign a decree in the Probate Department of the Superior Court in the latter part of June, 1907, that the estate of the veteran was to be divided among his heirs.

His final will was made to J. O'Brien in the Probate Department of the Superior Court in the latter part of June, 1907, and the matter rested there. Administrator Gray was informed of the receipt of the $300, and the case and took charge of the estate. The final will was made to J. O'Brien in the Probate Department of the Superior Court in the latter part of June, 1907, and the matter rested there.

Commander J. A. Colquhoun of the Post, G. A. R., did not like the idea of Pounstone resting in the pauper's yard and after benefiting the subject some of his comrades, all of whom he had known in life, he determined to see if he could devise some means of having the body transferred to Grand Army plot in Mountain View Cemetery. He hunted up the records of the estate in the County Clerk's office, found that $300 had been given to State. He also came across what purported to be a receipt for $125 given E. James Poney, the undertaker, to Public Administrator in settlement of his bill for the burial of Pounstone, another receipt bill against the estate by a Mrs. C. Harper in payment of a claim against the estate for $50. The dollars of this was for room rent during the time from September, 1907, to March, 1907, inclusive, the dead having lived with her during that period and the balance was for "damage" in bedding and carpet.

Goes to Authorities

The Harper claim did not interest quorum parties at all, but when he was undertaken bill he was disturbed, went immediately to District Attorney Deane and told the case before asking him if he did not think that some way whereby a sufficient amount

Efforts of Cretans to Renounce
Turkish Rule Nipped by Summary Action

CANIA Island of Crete Aug. 15.—A well directed shot fired by one of the parties of blue-jackets landed a bullet today from the international squadron anchored in Cania bay, 20 miles down the coast of the island of Crete, and with it the Greek flag that had been hoisted to bring about war between Turkey and Greece.

Assembled landing party composed of detachments from the ships of the four protecting powers was sent ashore to remove the flag and to prevent any further attempts to hoist it. The flag was carried off in a few minutes without any attempt at resistance on the part of the islanders.

Blue-Jackets on Guard
Most of the blue-jackets returned to their ships but small detachments, representatives of each of the four powers, were left in the island to prevent any further attempts to hoist the flag. The powers are determined to maintain the status quo.

Inhabitants Warned
Yesterday foreign consuls at Cania notified the Cretan government that the Greek flag would be hoisted this morning and warned the government that any attempt to prevent this would follow an attack made on the international landing party. On receipt of this warning the Cretan authorities issued an appeal to the people not to obstruct in any way the action of the powers.

The action this morning means that the protecting powers have returned to the island and the situation is again much as it was before July 27.

No proclamation of the required length was issued, the policeman's eye being the criterion of judgment.
